Jesus' Great Prayer For Unity!

There are many great prayers recorded in Scripture: Solomon's prayer (1 Kings 9), Abraham's prayer (Genesis 18), Moses' prayer (Exodus 32), Daniel's prayer (Daniel 9), Paul's prayer (Romans 10:1; Ephesians 1:15-23), and Jesus' prayers (Matthew 6:9-13; Luke 23:34). Notice some points regarding prayers of our Lord.

The Savior Prayed for Himself (John 17:1-5). His concern for Himself is actually a concern for the glory of the Father. The Savior Prayed for His Disciples (John 17:6-19). Jesus spoke of His mission among the disciples and their reception of it. The Savior Prayed for His Believers (John 17:20-26). He prayed for us.

"United We Stand" is a powerful theme that has united Americans for decades and beyond. However, Jesus' prayer for Himself, His disciples, and all who would ever believe in Him is a unity far beyond patriotism; it is a unity of eternal magnitude.

"VISITORS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME"

SUPPOSE

"Suppose," said I, that you should see
A small boy tumble from a tree;
How would you tell that tale to me?"

"Why, dad," said he, "I'd simply say,
I saw a fellow hurt today,
And two men carried him away."

"How many injured would there be," I asked?
"Just one, of course," said he,
"The boy who tumbled from the tree."

"No, no," I answered him,
"That fall which hurt the lad brought pain to all,
Who knew and loved that youngster small."

"His mother wept, his father sighed,
His brothers and sisters cried,
And all his friends were hurt inside."

"Remember this your whole life through;
Whatever may cause hurt to you
Must hurt us all who love you too."

"You cannot live your life alone;
We suffer with your slightest groan
And make your pain and grief our own."

"If you should do one shameful thing,
You would not bear alone the sting;
We'd spend our years in suffering."

"How many hurt?" We cannot state.
There never falls a blow of fate
But countless people feel its weight."

- Edgar A. Guest, copied from Bulletin Fodder-

1 Corinthians 12: 26-27: And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it. Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

FROM THE PREACHER'S HEART:

WELCOME, VISITORS! We are so honored by your presence. It is our desire to worship the one true God in spirit and truth (John 4:24), as directed in His Word. Investigate God's inspired Scriptures with us. And, as the Lord through Isaiah said, "Come, let us reason together" (Acts 17:11; Isaiah 1:18). If you have religious questions about which you are concerned, please discuss them with us. We will be happy to calmly consider them. We sincerely hope you will visit with us again, and soon!

Our attendance Sunday sprang back a bit from previous weeks. Let us all put forth our best effort to be present for every service. We continue to have a lot of sickness. Several of our families are currently carrying burdens. Pray for them. We trust all will improve.

It is not enough to simply be present for the assemblies. We need to be involved in the Lord's work and service at other times and in other ways as many of you already do. Some are involved by sending cards, encouraging text and phone messages, preparing food, visiting, etc. You might also be able to assist in some of the following works which are headed up by the deacons: Josh Brown – local disasters (fires, floods, etc.)/inside maintenance; Barry Cook – coordinates worship services; Michael Hackett – Bible study (school) program; Steve Harper – security; Jeremy Hassler – power point/assists with Bible school program; Chris – treasurer; Jerry Hicks – bus transportation/property grounds; Johnny Law – benevolence; Joe Reeves – TCC; inside maintenance; Dusty Whitaker – sound system; Jeff Whited – heat and cooling, electrical, plumbing. If you have talents that are not being used, here's an opportunity to put them to good use. If you wish to assist in any of these areas contact the deacon in charge and ask, "What can I do to help?"

If you haven't already done so, please take a stack of cards, sign them, and drop them in the labeled bags available in the foyer. These will bring a ray of cheer to those shut-in and unable to be with us. The deadline is Sunday, December 17.

You are encouraged to avail yourself of the many excellent reading and resource materials which are available in the foyer and the library downstairs. You may also request copies of lessons from the recent gospel meeting and our regular services as well. Such personal study will prove profitable. We are blessed to have those who record and duplicate the lessons.

Hope to see everyone Sunday morning, our Lord willing.
Have a great rest of the week!

JOY THAT CANNOT BE TAKEN AWAY

It is an inescapable fact that trials and tribulations come upon us in this life. Peter recognized this when he wrote, "Though now for a little while, if need be, you have been grieved by various trials" (1 Peter 1:6b).

Peter explains that these griefs and trials have a purpose. Verse seven says, "That the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious that gold that perishes, though it be tested with fire, may be found to praise, honor and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ."

The importance of perseverance grows as your trials grow. The men and women of Hebrews 11 suffered greatly on occasion. But the reason they are listed there is because their faith was greater than their trial. For Noah, it was the labor of building the great ark when no one else believed or cared. For Abraham, it was offering Isaac, the son he loved, on the altar of sacrifice. For Moses, it was giving up the pleasures of life to suffer with God's people. For Rahab, it was choosing to believe in God rather than the lifeless idols she had grown up with. There were others whose faith cost them their lives, being stoned, sawn in two, and killed with the sword. In every case it was their faith that enabled them to persevere. And their perseverance has brought to them praise, honor and glory from God—high praise, indeed.

For God's faithful today, the joy (true joy) of being a Christian cannot be dampened by the trials and tribulations in this life. Christianity has the hope and the promise of God for eternal joy. Jesus spoke of those who were poor, hungry, weeping, hated, and reviled, saying, "Rejoice in that day and leap for joy! For indeed your reward is great in heaven, for in like manner their fathers did to the prophets" (Luke 6:20-23). Christianity rises above the woes and heartaches and persecutions of this life. Christianity has heaven as her anchor and eternity as her clock; God is her Planner and Jesus is her Guarantor. This is why Paul could say with all confidence, "Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice!" (Phil. 4:4).
