

THE POWER OF PRAYER

There is a legend of a prince with a crooked back. He was so ashamed of his appearance that he refused to go out in public. One day he hired a skillful sculptor to make a statue of him, but with a straight back so he could see himself as he might have been. He ordered that the complete statue be placed in a secret nook of the palace garden where only he could see it.

Every day the prince spent hours looking at the statue. Months later people began to say, "The prince's back seems straighter than it was," or, "The prince seems much more noble looking these days."

Hearing this, the prince went again into the garden and stood before the statue and behold, his back became as straight as the statue's.

We can be somewhat like that prince, especially when we develop the habit of daily Bible study and prayer. Growing in our knowledge of God's word, and living it, will point us in the right direction. Growing in devotion and prayer will transform us spiritually. Our circumstances may not change, but we will be strengthened to glorify God in those circumstances. So, stand tall and noble, child of God!

"VISITORS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME"

SO, YOU WANT TO BE GREAT?!

Humans of both sexes often aspire to greatness. We see it on the field in sports, on the stage and screen in entertainment, and in the classrooms of academia. There is nothing inherently wrong with wanting to "be the best you can be". All have heard, "Do your best", or "Give it your best", from a parent, teacher, coach, or good friend. Sound advice! "Anything worth doing is worth doing right", some said.

The world is preoccupied with greatness. Who is the greatest of all-time? It is asked about athletes, actors, and entertainers. It is posed concerning quarterbacks, pitchers, kickers, shooters, and hitters. The debate is unending. The question will never be answered to everyone's satisfaction.

The standards of the world regarding greatness revolve around records and riches. How much was he paid? How many touchdown passes did he throw? What was his completion percentage? How many homeruns did he hit? How many games did he win?

Jesus' disciples were also concerned with the matter of greatness. His "Little Child" discourse was delivered when the disciples came asking, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" (Matt. 18:1ff). Jesus reminds them that unless one is converted and becomes as a little child he will not even enter the kingdom (v. 3). He declares, "Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven" (v. 4, emphasis added). Jesus would address the subject again in Matthew 23:11 by simply, but emphatically stating: "But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant."

Mark's account reveals that during the trek through Galilee on the way to Capernaum, the disciples "had disputed - ("reasoned", Luke) - among themselves, who should be the greatest" (Mark 10:34; cf. Luke 9:46-48). Jesus, knowing their hearts, said to the twelve, "If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all" (v. 35).

The concept of the Christ is far different, but vastly superior, to that of the world. Jesus further explains, "Whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he who humbles himself shall be exalted" (Matt. 23:12). The way up is down!

The exaltation may not even come in this life, but it will come "in due time" (1 Peter 5:6). Our Lord humbled Himself to die the despised death of the cross (Phil. 2:8). He would, however, following His resurrection, be greatly exalted (Acts 2:33; 5:31).

Still want to be great? If so, humble yourself, obey Him, and follow Him.

FROM THE PREACHER'S HEART:

The Gospel Meeting with brother Clarence Deloach preaching was indeed a delight. We are eternally grateful for the restoration of his health and his ability to be with us. We were blessed by the presence of visitors from the community and sister congregations. The word was faithfully preached; the truth lovingly presented; the seed thoroughly sown; and the fellowship sweet. The reading and study of God's holy word, the beautiful hymns, and the fervent prayers brought glory to God and edified every receptive soul. Appreciation is expressed to Barry Cohoon and Johnny Law, who very capably led the singing. To all who worked behind the scenes preparing for the meeting, inviting others, and welcoming and greeting guests, we are deeply gratefully. Above all, we are thankful for the manifold blessings of God made available to us through His beloved Son!

Many enjoyed the Saturday (10th), afternoon fish fry and fellowship preceding the meeting. Gratitude is expressed to all who assisted with purchasing and preparing the fish, fries, and hush puppies. A special "Thanks" to the cooks! Slaw, other side dishes, and desserts were brought by so many. Thanks! A big THANK YOU to all who cleaned up afterwards, as well.

Our sound system and mikes have been repaired and modified and seem to be performing well. We apologize for any distraction due to a problem with the portable mike. It, too, will be replaced. Dusty Whitaker, Jeremy Hassler, and Justin Mauldin are to be thanked for their time, expertise, and effort in the matter.

Vacation Bible School is scheduled for June 7-11 at 6:30 P.M. Classes for all ages, including adults, will be offered Monday through Thursday. Friday's event will be devoted to awards and recognition of the children attending. The adult class will have different speakers each evening. Contact Jeremy Hassler, if you can assist.

Reminders: Pick up a copy of the current issue of The Spiritual Sword. Please schedule a time to have a picture made for the directory. Sign up on the list on table by front exit. If you are not on Birthday/Anniversary list, give your names and dates to Elaine or leave them on the answering machine.
